

Violence in the Workplace - Minimizing Aggressive Behaviors Quiz:

Fill in the blanks using these words:

Report _____ acts of violence and aggression including hitting, grabbing, foul language and verbal threats to your

Violence is a leading cause of injury to B.C. care workers and results in over _____ injuries each year.

Investigations of violent incidents frequently reveal that the patient involved had a history, or a known risk, of violent behaviour that was _____ communicated to workers by way of assessments, charts, and care plans.

_____ is not part of a health care worker's job.

Purple dots indicate I need to get more information

_____ I proceed with care or approaching the resident.

If a resident becomes aggressive it is best to back off and evaluate and _____ your next actions.

A code white can be called by _____ who becomes aware of a violent or potentially violent person or situation.

Violence in the Workplace - Minimizing Aggressive Behaviors

Wordsearch- Person Centred Care

| | |
|---------------------|--------------|
| Interdisciplinary | Teepa |
| Personhood | Gems |
| Life history | Dignity |
| Unique | Choice |
| Person centred care | Privacy |
| Relationships | Independence |
| Respect | Purpose |
| Autonomy | Share |
| Individualize | Communicate |
| Approach | Collaborate |
| Attitude | Caring |
| Memory boards | Resident |
| Care plans | Family |