

2023 MEMBER SURVEY

SafeCare BC

OUR IMPACT

89%

of respondents said we have helped their organization improve health and safety.

90% said they are more aware of health and safety because of SafeCare BC.

79% said they have changed how they work because of SafeCare BC.

TOP HEALTH AND SAFETY CONCERNS

Mental health and well-being of staff

53% of respondents

Fatigue and overexertion due to workload

41% of respondents

Client or resident responsive behaviours towards staff

31% of respondents

Injuries related to caring for residents and clients with dementia

27% of respondents

Workplace bullying and incivility

23% of respondents

Top three learning priorities

Psychological health and safety

60% of respondents

Dementia care

39% of respondents

Musculoskeletal injury prevention

35% of respondents

Barriers to training

LACK OF:

- Staff (33%)
- Time (32%)
- Funding (27%)
- Management Interest (25%)
- Frontline staff Interest (23%)

Short staffed. Over-worked. Underappreciated.

- Healthcare assistant

WHAT YOU TOLD US

1,006

Survey Respondents

35% increase from 2022

Keep doing these surveys. They allow us to have a voice.

- Healthcare assistant

I appreciate all that SafeCare BC provides and offers.

- Manager

63%

of respondents agreed (15%) or strongly agreed (48%) their Occupational Health and Safety Committee is effective at addressing health and safety concerns.

When they are made aware of situations they are effective, but sometimes they can only do so much

- Healthcare assistant

Information and courses from SafeCare BC have been worth my time.

- Healthcare assistant