

Health and Safety Matters

April 10, 2025

Are you getting the most out of your health and safety committee meetings?

Do you ever find yourself wondering what the point of your last meeting was? Do you often come out of meetings with even more questions than you came in with?

This month's featured eCourse, Running effective JOHS committee meetings, aims to fix those issues.

Upcoming events

April 24 | WEBINAR
Menopause in the workplace:
Breaking barriers and unlocking
potential

April 28 | WORKSHOP
Gentle Persuasive Approaches

April 29 | WORKSHOP
Provincial Violence Prevention
Curriculum

This self-paced online course gives you practical tools to:

- Streamline your meetings
- Efficiently manage a meeting
- Improve participation and decision-making
- Set clear goals
- Overcome challenges and avoid the pitfalls of meetings

For a limited time, use code "EffectJOHS50" for a discount.

Register at learn.safecarebc.ca

Register at safecarebc.ca/events

Learn how the JOHSC can make a real difference in your workplace

A strong JOHSC is more than a compliance measure. It reflects a workplace that values its people.

The committee promotes a sense of shared ownership by involving workers in safety planning, training and policy decisions. That commitment leads to better outcomes for staff and the residents they care for every day.

Strengthen safety in your workplace—get involved with your JOHSC today!

Read the full issue